

Sam'l H. Hill Dies Suddenly.

Samuel H. Hill, who lived about one mile northeast of Laynesville, died at his home Saturday night at 11 o'clock, after only four days illness from inflammation of the bowels. He was at his saw mill attending to business Tuesday. He was not thought to be seriously ill. A few minutes before his death he went out on the back porch where he fell prostrate, and before he could be gotten into the house succumbed. Miami News.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of slavery is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed now. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and can do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures puerperal fever, sleeplessness, neuralgia, headache, rheumatic, twinging and dizzy spells. This miracle-working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, rundown people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only $1.00. Sold by P. H. Franklin Druggist.

Jail Delivery in Columbia.

On last Friday night there was a jail delivery at the Boone county jail. Three prisoners escaped. They were John Lewis, who was under sentence of two years imprisonment in the penitentiary for picking pockets and who was awaiting the decision of his case in the higher courts; Bill Jones, charged with cattle stealing; and Charles Neely charged with forgery. They broke the lock on their cell door and singed their way through the outer brick wall of the jail and escaped. It is supposed that they received outside assistance. None of them have yet been caught. Herald.

Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Curtin, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles found herself sound and well; now does her own housework and is as well as she ever was. Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at P. H. Franklin's Drug Store. Only 50 cents and $1.00, every bottle guaranteed.

Gilliam Bank Wins.

Judge Ellison in the supreme court at Kansas City Monday, in the case of Louis J. Stone vs. Gilliam Bank, appellant reversed and remanded the decision of the lower court. The court at Marshall last year gave the decision in favor of Mrs. Stone, but an appeal to a higher court was taken which by its decision Monday, upholds the good judgment and thorough commercial knowledge of banker, J. R. Kirk, Gilliam Co.

Grain-O Brings Relief to the coffee-drinker. Coffee drinking is a habit that is universally indulged in and almost as universally injurious. Have you tried Grain-O? It is almost like coffee but the effects are opposite. Coffee upsets the stomach, ruins the digestion, affects the heart and disturbs the whole nervous system. Grain-O tones up the stomach aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. 15 and 25c per package. J. H. Kirk, Gilliam Co.

Miss Ella Booth, of Marshall, Mo., has been employed to teach the fall and winter school in Goodwater district northeast of Centralia. Centralia Correspondence of Columbia Herald.

A good appetite is essential to good health. Hood's Sarsaparilla creates an appetite, tones and strengthens the stomach. And builds up the whole system. It relieves that tired feeling, and by purifying and enriching the blood, it promptly and permanently cures all seroful eruptions, boils, humors, pimples and sores; strengthens the nerves, and gives sweet, refreshing sleep. No other medicine has taken such hold upon the confidence of the people as Hood's Sarsaparilla, and its record of greatness is unequalled by any other preparation. You may take Hood's Sarsaparilla with the utmost confidence that it will do you good.
